Dear Judge Patterson:

In my last letter I neglected to ask for a specific date for this matter to be adjourned. My trial in the Bronx is scheduled to begin on November 27, 2007, and I will be pre-occupied in preparing until then. The trial is expected to last about 3 weeks, or until right before the Christmas holidays. I would request, therefore, that this matter be adjourned until any day in the second week of January, 2008. Further, all of the time should be excludable as any delay has been occasioned by my trial schedule. As I indicated in my last letter, I have spoken with AUSA Parvin Moyne and the Government has no objection.

Very truly yours,

Susan V. Tipograph
